

VOTE YOUR VALUES: FAITH-BASED VOTER RESOURCES & GUIDES

EQUIP YOUR CONGREGATION WITH TRUSTED RESOURCES

Every election season, faithful Christians ask the same question: "How do I make voting decisions that align with my biblical values?" While your church can't endorse candidates, you can absolutely point your congregation toward trusted, nonpartisan resources that help them apply their faith to their civic responsibilities.

These nationally recognized Christian voter guides provide exactly what your members need: comprehensive candidate information, biblical frameworks for decision-making, and the tools to make informed choices that honor their faith.

Why This Matters for Your Ministry: Empowering your congregation with quality resources demonstrates your commitment to their spiritual growth in every area of life, including their role as citizens. These guides maintain the nonpartisan approach required for churches while providing the biblical perspective your members are seeking.

This guide will introduce you to six nationally recognized organizations that provide trusted voter resources your church can confidently share with your congregation. Because faithful citizenship requires both biblical conviction and practical information—and these resources provide both.
